

Antique Shipwright's Chest, English, Craftsman's Tool Trunk, Victorian, C.1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6780

This is an antique shipwright's chest. An English, pine craftsman's tool trunk, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Delightfully presented antique chest
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Resplendent in original dark green painted hues
- Rich caramel hues radiate from the wax polished interior
- Stout lid opens smoothly to present the suite of tool lockers
- Easily removed for access, the upper compartment opens upon a hinged lid
- Two sliding drawers add further storage for the craftsman's tools
- Small inset lock to front — untested, key absent
- Iron drop handles to each side over shaped backplates
- The whole standing upon a deep plinth base

Search London Fine for #18.6780 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 82cm (32.25")

Max Depth: 37cm (14.5")

Max Height: 36cm (14.25")

