

Antique Well Bucket, English, Fruitwood, Wrought Iron, Fireside Bin, Georgian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7463

This is an antique well bucket. An English, fruitwood and wrought iron fireside bin, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1800.

- Wonderfully rustic countryside appeal from the Georgian period
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Fruitwood displays light weathering and deep russet hues
- Wrought iron handle articulates upon delightful split pin hinges
- Of generous proportion, ideal for the fireside - suitable for coal, logs and kindling

This is a charming antique well bucket. Blessed with an old English countryside appeal, this bucket is sure to enhance the farmhouse or lodge fireplace. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the fireside.

Search London Fine for #18.7463, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 32.5cm (12.75")

Max Depth: 41cm (16.25")

Max Height: 41cm (16.25")

