

Antique Strongbox, English, Cast Iron, Safe, Deposit Case, Victorian, Circa 1850

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.6541

This is an antique strongbox. An English, cast iron safe deposit case, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850.

- Fascinating antique safe of impressive weight
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Cast iron resplendent in a good, consistent graphite finish
- Naturally weathered interior presents an attractive array of hues
- 6mm (0.25") thick safe door opens upwards with a stout handle
 - Dressed with an inset lock mechanism and swivel cover – in working order, key present
- Pair of robust drop handles to either side of the strongbox
- Superb security assured by a reassuring weight of 100kg (220lb)

This is an appealing antique strongbox, with dependable weight and proportion. Can be used free-standing or sunk into the floor for added security. Delivered polished and ready to serve.

Search London Fine for #18.6541, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 71.5cm (28.25")
Max Depth: 47cm (18.5")
Max Height: 43cm (17")
Vault Width: 69.5cm (27.25")
Vault Depth: 41.5cm (16.25")
Vault Height: 37cm (14.5")

