

Pair Of, Antique Stick Stands, Brass, Umbrella Rack, Fireside Bin, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7559

This is a pair of antique stick stands. An English, brass umbrella rack or fireside bin, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1860.

- Elegantly appointed stands with pleasing finish
- Displaying a desirable aged patina with some marks commensurate with age
- Brass presents deep golden tones with appealing antique weathering
- Stout wrought iron handles adjoin with decorative club-shape hinges
- Thick rolled edge stands above a trio of shaped feet

This is a fine pair of antique stick stands, with wonderful early Victorian craftsmanship. Versatile and desirable, delivered polished and ready for the hallway or fireside.

Search London Fine for #18.7559, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 28cm (11")

Max Depth: 28cm (11")

Max Height: 56cm (22")

Opening Diameter: 24cm (9.5")

