

Antique Decorative Condiment Set, English, Silver, Hallmarked, Edwardian, 1909

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7592

This is an antique decorative condiment set. An English, sterling silver boxed set by Henry Matthews of Birmingham, hallmarked in the Edwardian period, dated 1909.

- A fine set, presented wonderfully within the original quality case
- Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout
- Sterling silver shines brightly with decades of gently polished finish
- Striking blue glass inserts show the deepest cobalt hues
 - Encased within quality English oak, showing rich caramel hues and fine grain interest
- Fully lined interior - the lid graced with rich blue silk cotton
- Dressed in dark blue velvet, each condiment pot sits within a shaped enclosure
- Each of the five spoons held in place with small elastic hoops
- Egg and dart detail adorns each piece with fine detail and sinuous forms
- A quartet of graceful condiment pots with graceful swan neck handles
- Mustard pot offers a hinged lid with spoon recess and blue glass interior

Search London Fine for #18.7592, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 40cm (15.75")
 Max Depth: 23.5cm (9.25")
 Max Height: 7cm (2.75")
 Condiment Pot Width: 11.5cm (4.5")
 Condiment Pot Depth: 5cm (2")
 Condiment Pot Height: 7cm (2.75")
 Shaker Width: 4cm (1.5")
 Shaker Depth: 4cm (1.5")
 Shaker Height: 10cm (4")
 Mustard Pot Width: 9cm (3.5")
 Mustard Pot Depth: 4.5cm (1.75")
 Mustard Pot Height: 8cm (3.25")

LIST PRICE

£1,795.00

