- Distinctive example of the artist's unique style
- The male figure gazes outwards from the centre
- Displaying gallery exhibition quality and in good order
- Three screenprint serigraph upon quality, archival stock
- Number 64 in a limited run of 75 prints
- Embossed maker's stamp of authenticity to bottom left corner
- Signed and dated to 2007 by Kinsey upon the opposite corner
- Unframed — delivered flat, not rolled

Dave Kinsey was born in Pittsburgh in 1972 and studied art at institutes in his hometown and Atlanta, Georgia before a move to California to pursue a career in design and fine art. Favouring constructions of multiple layers and textures, a solitary figure features in much of his work, which in later years has turned to ideals of environmentalism. This is a fine opportunity to invest in an artist that has been exhibited in New York, San Francisco and Belgium et al

This is a fascinating signed decorative screenprint with appealing finish and use of color. It would make a fine addition to any wall or collection.
