DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7555

This is a vintage clerk's desk. An English, light oak writing or study table, dating to the mid 20th century, circa 1960.

- Delightful mid century appeal to this useful desk
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Light oak shows rich caramel hues and fine grain interest
- Dark emerald green rexine top contrasts superbly with the desk
- Arranged with a distinctive arched rail and offset trio of drawers
- Each drawer finished with a domed pull, the top dressed with an inset brass lock – key absent
- Offering a comfortable kneehole height of 69.5cm (27.25")
- Raised upon square section legs, with a lower stretcher rail aiding stability

This is a charming vintage clerk's desk, presenting an attractive mid-century appeal ideal for the study or small office. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
