

Large Antique Silversmith's Table, English, Pine, Industrial, Bench, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7571

This is a large antique silversmith's table. An English, pine industrial craftsman's bench, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1900.

- Delightfully stout and robust antique artisan's table
- Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout
- Victorian pine top shows fine grain interest and natural finish
- Original painted frame pleasingly weathered with great character
- Impressive three plank top with superb 7cm (2.75") thickness
- Pair of tool drawers to front with dividers, the left dressed with an iron drop handle
- Raised upon stout square section legs to each corner
- Eye-catching cross-stretchers add visual interest and strength to the frame

This is a distinctive antique silversmith's table, with wonderful original patination and great proportion. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home or institution.
