

Antique Tub Arm Chair, English, Elbow, Boudoir Seat, Fireside, Victorian, C.1860

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7656

This is an antique tub arm chair. An English, textile and mahogany elbow, boudoir or fireside seat, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1860.

- Desirable form and proportion to this appealing chair
- Displays a desirably aged patina
- Benefits from a professional reupholstering in quality chenille fabric
- Traditionally stuffed and buttoned for comfortable relaxation
- Ivy green chenille fabric with fascinating pattern presents a tactile experience
- Raised top rail with buttoned rest terminates gracefully at the arms
- Rolled edges present a gently chamfered comfort
- For the smaller hip, the seat presents an intimate proposition
- Mahogany frame shows rich russet hues and fine grain interest
- Turned baluster legs with tapering form to the front
- Pair of splayed legs to rear of the chair

Search London Fine for #18.7656 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 60.5cm (23.75")
- Max Depth: 73cm (28.75")
- Max Height: 77.5cm (30.5")
- Seat Width: 39.5cm (15.5")
- Seat Depth: 58.5cm (23")
- Seat Height: 49cm (19.25")

