

Pair Of, Antique Gentleman's Club Chairs, Leather, Fireside, Seat, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7686

This is a pair of antique gentleman's club armchairs. An English, oak and leather fireside seat, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Wonderfully long of thigh for relaxed use
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Later, professionally dressed leather of high quality presents beautifully
- Select oak frame shows fine grain interest and dark hues
- Shaped top rail with carved foliate lozenge decoration to centre
- Short back rest accentuated with press stud trim border
- Sinuous, long arms with wonderfully figured oak a tactile treat
- Carved knees to front with stepped form and reeded detail
- Inviting chestnut hues to the leather seat coverings
- Traditionally stuffed, the cushions host a classic polo scene upholstery to the reverse
- In light vermillion, the fabric reverse shows polo players mounted on horseback
