

Huge, 15' Long Antique Glazed Bookcase, English, Mahogany, Victorian, Circa 1880

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7648

This is a very large antique glazed bookcase. An English, mahogany breakfront library cabinet, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880.

- Truly arresting proportion at a width of 15 feet
- Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout
- Select mahogany presents fine grain interest
- Deep russet hues beam beneath a quality wax polish finish
- Prominent, tiered crown end cabinets host a pair of shelves
- 136" wide display surface ideal for reading lamps or ornaments
- Six central cabinets - four with glazed doors and a pair of decorated field panels
- Carved emblems with Scottish overtones grace the pleasingly thick field panels
- Inset oval pattern along the top apron accentuated with carved flowerhead patera
- Scrolling vine carvings adorn the breakfront aprons flanked by pyramid carvings
- Repository labels to rear add further period interest

Search London Fine for #18.7648 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 459.5cm (181")
- Max Depth: 45.5cm (18")
- Max Height: 146.5cm (57.75")
- Top Surface Width: 346cm (136.25")
- Top Surface Depth: 39.5cm (15.5")
- Top Surface Height: 117.5cm (46.25")

