

Large Vintage Centre Table, French, Bureau Plait, Louis XV Taste, Circa 1960

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7774

This is a large vintage centre table. A French, kingwood bureau plait in Louis XV taste, dating to the mid 20th century, circa 1960.

- Exquisite example of Louis XV revival taste
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Striking kingwood presents superb grain interest
- Rich caramel hues radiate beneath the wax polish finish
- Of fine proportion and serpentine, bureau plait form
 - Bookmatched decorative marquetry panels to top, each accentuated with foliate scroll borders
- Sinuous table edge with triple bow profile and gently rolled edge
- Shaped aprons to each side, enhanced with further quality marquetry in boxwood
- Offers a comfortable height of 79.5cm (31.25") with generous knee-hole height of 62cm (24.5")
- Raised upon tall cabriole legs with delightful ormolu mounts to the toe

Search London Fine for #18.7774 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 199cm (78.25")
Max Depth: 93.5cm (36.75")
Max Height: 79.5cm (31.25")
Knee-hole Height: 62cm (24.5")

