

Antique Linen Press Cupboard, English, Walnut, Cabinet, London, Victorian, 1890

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7802

This is a quality antique linen press cupboard. An English, walnut gentleman's cabinet by Hewetson & Milner of London, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1890.

- A cabinet of the first order, with imperious craftsmanship throughout
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in very good order
- Superb walnut stocks offer fine grain interest and luxuriant caramel hues
- Presents the air of satisfaction of being in one place for a long period of time
- Prominent crown moulding stands above the delightful whole
 - Pair of field doors dressed with a drop handle over a brass lock escutcheon – untested, key absent
 - Impressively thick doors open to a quartet of press slides
 - Four drawers to base arranged two over two, with brass lock escutcheons – keys absent
- Each dressed with original brass drop handles over pierced backplates
- Upper right drawers graced with an engraved maker's mark
- Mark reads 'Hewetson & Milner, London, Tottenham Court Road'

Search London Fine for #18.7802, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 131cm (51.5")

Max Depth: 59.5cm (23.5")

Max Height: 216.5cm (85.25")

Find out more about Hewetson & Milner here...

