

Set Of 4 Antique Embroidered Chairs, English, Dining Seat, After Sheraton, 1780

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7849

This is a set of 4 antique embroidered chairs. An English, mahogany dining seat in the Sheraton manner, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1780.

- Delightful embroidered cushions and superb Georgian craftsmanship
- Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout - cushions show slight colour variance
- Select stocks present deep russet hues beneath a wax polish finish
- Traditionally stuffed cushions upholstered with later, quality needlepoint covers
- Elegant backrest with deftly carved wheatsheaf and sash garland detail
- With a subtle bow form, the top rail adorned with carved flowerheads to the ears
- Distinctive reeded support columns of slender profile turned in classical taste
- Hand embroidered cushions host colourful bouquets of flowers over natural coloured grounds
 - Unmarked as such, the chairs present the influence of Thomas Sheraton's craftsmanship
 - Gently tapering, the front legs accentuated with fluting over a spade foot
 - Swept rear feet with square section toes arc gracefully from the backrest
