

Antique Fireside Elbow Chair, English, Beech, Occasional Seat, Victorian, C.1890

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7835

This is an antique fireside elbow chair. An English, beech occasional seat, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1890.

- Delightfully figured, low profile occasional chair
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in very good order
- Select Beech shows superb grain interest
- Rich caramel hues radiated beneath a quality wax polish finish
- Encapsulates the country house appeal, ideal for the lounge or kitchen
- Bow-shaped top rail terminates in scrolled ends
- Turned spindle back framed by baluster supports
- Serpentine arms with broad elbows and scrolled knuckles
- Striking circular seat gleams with a reflective brilliance
- Low, relaxed seat height of 36.5cm (14.25")
- Raised upon turned legs with ring spun finish

Search London Fine for #18.7835 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 60.5cm (23.75")
- Max Depth: 59cm (23.25")
- Max Height: 78.5cm (31")
- Seat Width: 42cm (16.5")
- Seat Depth: 46.5cm (18.25")
- Seat Height: 36.5cm (14.25")

LIST PRICE

£675.00

