

Antique Craftsman's Trunk, English, Carpentry, Maritime, Tool Chest, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7845

This is an antique craftsman's trunk. An English, pine carpentry or maritime tool chest, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850.

- Generously sized trunk with considerably robust stocks
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Select pine shows fine weathering commensurate with age
- Stained fascia contrast with the canvas dressed lid and painted plinth base
- Stout lid with braced corners opens wide, resting upon a full-width lip to rear
- Lid interior cheerfully decorated with cigarette cards or similar in decopage manner
- Drop-in divider provides a secondary compartment to the interior
- The front adorned with a beaded diamond motif and small inset lock – key absent
- Iron corner straps provide extra strength for travel
- Drop handles to each end, over broad backplates
 - Standing upon a deep plinth foot, crafted to withstand the rigours of Victorian docksides
