

Antique Welsh Dresser, British, Oak, Sideboard Cabinet, Country House, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7707

This is an antique Welsh dresser. A British, oak sideboard cabinet of country house proportion, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850.

- Impressively tall, two piece Victorian Welsh dresser
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Select oak shows deep caramel hues beneath a wax polish finish
- Graced with fine grain interest throughout and wisps of medullary rays
- A wide crown moulding sits prominently over the whole
- Back rest arranged as a trio shelves set between carved pilasters
- The generously sized base offers a set of six drawers and two side cabinets
 - Drawers and doors dressed with inset, brass lined locks —in working order, keys present
 - Brass drop handles to each drawer sit upon decorated backplates
 - Shaped handles to the cabinet doors with quarterfoil mounts
 - Beaded field panels adorn the doors and drawer frames
