

Two Door Antique Bookcase, Victorian Pine Glazed c.1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 10.1324

This is an antique pine glazed two door cabinet dating to the end of the Victorian period c.1900.

Raised on extended end stiles the stripped pine has a deep honey glow to the finish with a country feel to a cabinet that may be used equally well as a bookcase, larder or display cabinet.

The end panels are closed in with fluted board beneath a plain top with moulded edge detail. The pair of glazed doors close neatly secured with a twist latch and dressed with turned wooden pulls.

Inside the cupboard benefits from a full depth shelf beneath a half depth shelf dividing the space usefully into three sections. The back displays well with a fluted board back to match the side detail.

Strong joints and construction, delivered waxed polished and ready for the home.
