

Antique Campaign Chest of Drawers, Teak, Lowboy, Brass, Victorian, Circa 1880

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7950

This is an antique campaign chest of drawers. An English, teak lowboy with brass handles, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880.

- Delightfully functional and craftsmanship to stand the test of time
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Solid teak in thick sections with ebonised finish to exterior
- Delightfully patinated finish commensurate with age and use
- Hugely practical and a wonderful statement piece decoratively
- Arranged as a trio of useful, full-width drawers
- Each dressed with recessed brass pulls with cupped backplates
- Small inset locks to each drawer front – untested, keys absent
- Detail to locks reads 'V&R Blakemore, Birmingham'

This is a fascinatingly robust antique campaign chest of drawers, with heavy teak stocks and functional presentation. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
