

Late Victorian Walnut Torchere, Plant Stand c.1900

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # LFA-1385 This is an antique plant stand or torchere dating to the late Victorian era, c.1900. Raised on a square shaped base with wonderful tones to the light, solid walnut the fluted column is anchored in a collar of concentric turnings. The smooth dished top is aesthetically pleasing and provides a solid, stable surface. At a height of only 77cm this stand is a useful height not only for a trailing plant but maybe also to place alongside an armchair or as a key or coin dish for the hall. The walnut has a deep, lustrous shine and the piece proportion, stability and strength. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
