

Antique Serving Tray, English, Teak, Decorative, Campaign, Colonial, Georgian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7921

This is an antique inlaid serving tray. An English, teak and Mother of Pearl decorative afternoon tea or campaign tray, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1800.

- Striking example of Georgian marquetry
- Desirably aged over two centuries with an appealing, well-used patina
- Select teak shows fine grain interest and vibrant russet hues
- Mother of Pearl and brass foliate inlays a decorative flourish - some losses present
- Further inlay detail adorns the shallow tray edge

This is a superb antique inlaid serving tray, a distinctive and tactile example for your social gatherings. Delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
