

Pair Of Vintage Turned Tazza, English, Cedar, Decorative Treen, Bowl, Art Deco

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8065

This is a pair of vintage turned tazza. An English, cedar decorative treen or bowl, dating to the late Art Deco period, circa 1940.

- Decorative wood turning from the hands of a master craftsman
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Delightful cedar stocks present fine grain interest
- Rich russet hues dazzle beneath a wax polish finish
- Raised upon an ebonised display stand, dressed with protective baize beneath

This is a quality pair of vintage turned tazzas, with wonderful cedar stocks and skilfully turned to graceful form. Delivered waxed, polished and ready to display.

Search London Fine for #18.8065, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 15cm (6")

Max Depth: 15cm (6")

Max Height: 17.5cm (7")

