

Antique Coffee Table, English, Danish Taste, After Merrow, Mid 20th Century

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7897

This is a quality vintage coffee table. An English, rosewood table with Danish influence, after Merrow Associates, dating to the mid 20th century, circa 1960.

- Strikingly attractive example of sought-after, mid century furniture
- Displays a desirable aged patina with some small age related marks
- Quality veneer displays fine grain interest and rich russet hues
- Polished chrome supports dazzle in their bright finish
- Wide and low profile, ideal for the larger lounge
- Pleasingly thick apron with a depth of 6.5cm (2.5")
- Stands upon a pair of square section legs
- Unmarked as Merrow, but very much of that oeuvre and quality
- Hand-written marking for Johnson & Johnson pharmaceutical company to the underside
 - Lead designer Richard Merrow studied in Copenhagen, influencing his furniture aesthetic
 - Production runs were limited to around 50 units of each design

Search London Fine for #18.7897, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 157.5cm (62")

Max Depth: 72.5cm (28.5")

Max Height: 38cm (15")

