

Antique Country House Boot Jack, English, Folding, Equestrian, Riding, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7999

This is an antique country house boot jack. An English, oak folding equestrian riding or hiking shoe pull, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Of useful purpose for riders or ramblers - easily folds for stowage
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Turned and carved oak shows fine grain interest
- Light oak shows appealing biscuit hues
- Turned steadying handles sit atop the frame
- Articulated boot rest folds outwards, to achieve a free standing form
- Generous shoe recess of 26cm x 11.5cm (10.25" x 4.5")
- Rest dressed with a slip of aged black rubber for heel grip

This is a delightful antique boot jack, with country house appeal and useful to those with outdoor pursuits. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the doorway or stableyard.
