

Antique Ross Telescope, English, 3 Draw, Terrestrial Refractor, Early 20th, 1920

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7959

This is an antique Ross of London telescope. An English, brass three draw terrestrial refractor, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1920.

Perfect for bird watching, landscape appreciation, wildlife, or maritime observation. Equally suitable for observing the night sky.

- An attractive antique telescope from a renowned maker
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Silvered brass finish presents bright, reflective tones
- Clear, bright objective with a large 50mm (2") diameter
- Front element protected by a generous sliding sun shade
- Fascinating tapering primary barrel dressed in a black crackle finish
- Flared eye-cup with sliding dust cover and eye-catching concentric ring finish
- Of three draw form, the whole drawing with a reassuringly firm action
- The final draw tube engraved with the Ross London mark and serial number 33079
- Tube also engraved to the underside with the monogram of H.W.C.

Search London Fine for #18.7959, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Closed Length: 26.5cm (10.5")

Fully Drawn Length: 83cm (32.75")

Primary Objective Diameter: 50mm (2")

LIST PRICE

£985.00

