

Antique Corner Whatnot, English, Light Oak, Display Cabinet, Victorian, C.1880

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7894

This is an antique corner whatnot. An English, light oak display cabinet, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880.

- Resplendent with light stocks, and appealing detail
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Select oak with medium biscuit hues shows fine grain interest
- Enthusiastically turned and carved detail catches the eye
 - Shaped back stand with serpentine scrolled form stands above a useful display surface
 - Gallery middle with barley twist supports offers a bright, open space
 - Arranged with a pair of cabinet doors presenting field panels with relief cabochon to centre
 - Each door dressed with small brass drop handles and inset, working locks – key present
 - Opening to reveal a full-width shelf, intersected with a pattern carved support
 - The whole stands upon a trio of bun feet beneath a front apron

Search London Fine for #18.7894 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 69.5cm (27.25")

Max Depth: 48cm (19")

Max Height: 122.5cm (48.25")

Corner Depth at Right Angle to Wall: 49cm (19.25")

