

Antique 3 Draw Telescope, English, Terrestrial, Davis of London, Victorian, 1860

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8064
 This is an antique 3 draw telescope. An English, brass terrestrial or astronomical refractor by Davis of London, dating to the mid Victorian period, circa 1860.
 Perfect for bird watching, landscape appreciation, wildlife, or maritime observation. Equally suitable for observing the night sky.

- Of impressive proportion when fully drawn, compact when closed
- Displaying a desirable aged patina, some light marks commensurate with use
- Fruitwood primary barrel shows rich russet hues
- Polished draw barrels show bright golden tones
- Presenting a clear optical performance, with a 40mm (1.5") primary objective lens
- Guard against strong light with a generously deep, sliding sun shade
- Complete with sliding brass dust cover to front, set within screw-on mount
- Another sliding dust cover resides within the eye cup
- Draws with a pleasingly firm action
- Three draw tubes, showing signs of light polish and use

Search London Fine for #18.8064 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Closed Length: 27.5cm (10.75")
 Fully Drawn Length: 89.5cm (35.25")
 Objective Diameter: 40mm (1.5")

LIST PRICE

£1,475.00

