

Antique Cartographer's Set, English, Architect, Draughtsman Tool Case, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8129

This is an antique cartographer's set. An English, silver nickel architect's or draughtsman's case by Stanley of London, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Fascinating early 20th century instrument case
- Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout
- Silver nickel tools in very good, working order
- Presented within a textured carry case
- Comprising 17 pieces with accessory pointers and extending beam
- Two pairs of large compass dividers and three bow compass
- Cellulite ruling pens engraved with the Stanley name
- Cobalt blue interior with gold tooled Stanley crest for the Great Turnstile site

This is a superb antique cartographer's set with a comprehensive selection of tools for the architect or hobbyist. Delivered polished and ready to grace a desk top.

Search London Fine for #18.8129 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 17cm (6.75")

Max Depth: 14.5cm (5.75")

Max Height: 2.5cm (1")

