This is a set of 6 antique tea spoons. An English, silver cutlery case with tongs, hallmarked in the late Victorian period, 1900.

- Beautifully presented set with delicate, ornate detail
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Quality silver presents a bright reflective tonality
- Rich cobalt and navy blue case interior a visual treat
- Each spoon decorated with twisted vine motif to handles
- Wide, spade-shape end engraved with cursive initials SAS
- To the reverse, wreath decor sits upon the concave form
- Hallmarks to all six spoons present, with indeterminate maker's mark
- Elegant sugar tongs with a repeat of the decorative motif
- Again, engraved with the eye-catching SAS monogram
- Generously sized hallmarks sit within the handle
