

Antique Circular Breakfast Table, English, Tilting Top, Centrepiece, William IV

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8027

This is an antique circular breakfast table. An English, rosewood tilt-top centrepiece table, dating to the William IV period, circa 1835.

- Superior stocks and finish offer a delightful allure
- Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout
- Select stocks show excellent grain interest
- Rich caramel hues beam beneath a wax polish finish
- Striking circular top with exquisite, bookmatched finish
- Rolled circular edge sits above a generous drum apron
- Tilting smoothly from a stout support column
- Released by a long brass lever, resting within an inset brass socket
- Attractive tapering cylinder support unites the top and circular base
- Acanthus bulb decor accentuates the collar
- Standing proudly upon three heavily carved lion's paw feet

Search London Fine for #18.8027 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 130.5cm (51.5")
- Max Depth: 130.5cm (51.5")
- Max Height: 73cm (28.75")
- Folded Width: 130.5cm (51.5")
- Folded Depth: 83cm (32.75")
- Folded Height: 152.5cm (60")
- Kneehole Height: 65.5cm (25.75")

