

Antique Traveller's Suitcase, Indian, Colonial, Crocodile, Luggage, Edwardian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8110

This is an antique traveller's suitcase. An Indian, crocodile skin case, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Fascinating colonial era suitcase with antique travel appeal
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Genuine crocodile hide with a tactile finish and rich tanning
- Dressed with brass sliding clasps with inset locks – key absent
- Broad leather handle to front for ease of carriage
 - Decorated with remnants of travel labels for the Ellerman City Line, a British shipping company
 - Maker's label to the wonderfully clean interior reads The North West Tannery Co, Cawnpore - today Kanpur, India
 - Finished with eight brass studs to the base

This is a delightful antique traveller's suitcase, with appeal for collectors of colonial or voyage interests. Delivered polished and ready to enjoy.
