

Antique Fireside Log Bin, English, Coal Bucket, Fire Scuttle, Edwardian, C.1910

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7913

This is an antique fireside log bin. An English, brass coal bucket with lid, dating to the Edwardian period, circa 1910.

- Attractive bin sure to grace the fireside
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Brass presents appealing amber and golden tones
- Removable bin with handle in clean order
- Domed circular lid adorned with a finial handle
- Decorative pattern bands accentuate the circumference
- Unusual horn-shaped brass handles to either side over shaped back plates
- Standing upon a trio of brass cabriole legs with decorated knees

This is a charming antique fireside log bin. Suitable for all fuel types, the attractive appearance will enhance any fireplace. Delivered polished and ready to use.

Search London Fine for #18.7913, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 33.5cm (13.25")
- Max Depth: 31.5cm (12.5")
- Max Height: 42cm (16.5")
- Bin Width: 26cm (10.25")
- Bin Depth: 26cm (10.25")
- Bin Height: 27.5cm (10.75")

LIST PRICE

£395.00

