

Large Antique Officer Of The Watch Telescope, English, Negretti and Zambra, 1880

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8060

This is a large antique 'officer of the watch' telescope. An English, single draw refractor for terrestrial or astronomical use by Negretti and Zambra of London, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1880.

Perfect for bird watching, landscape appreciation, wildlife stalking, or maritime observation. Equally suitable for observing the night sky.

- Wonderfully presented example of an Officer of the Watch type telescope
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order
- The primary barrel dressed with a tightly wound and weathered string jacket
- Eye-catching silvered and brassed metalwork offers great tonality
- Single tube draws smoothly with a reassuring action
- Usefully sized 39mm (1.5") primary objective in good, clear order
- Generous sliding sun shade provides cover from distracting rays and flares
- Concave eyecup with drop-in sliding dust cover
- Engraved in delightful cursive for Negretti and Zambra, London
- Supplied with a London Fine oak and brass 'Captain's Stand' for display
