

Antique Serving Table, English, Pitch Pine, Pugin, Ecclesiastical, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8056

This is an antique serving table. An English, pitch pine hall table with Pugin-esque ecclesiastical taste, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1880.

- Appealing table of generous proportion and Gothic overtones
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Pitch pine shows fine grain interest throughout
- Presents rich caramel hues beneath a wax polish finish
- Graced with a stout top, with a thickness of 4cm (1.5")
- Fascinating forms to the large base with buttress supports and shaped toes
 - Corbel brackets sit above the front legs, accentuated with notch carvings to shoulders
- Standing upon distinctive shaped feet to front, with H-stretcher uniting the square section rear feet

This is a distinctive and appealing antique jointed side table, with ecclesiastical taste to the Pugin inspired forms. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
