

Large Antique Four Panel Coffe, Scottish, Oak, Chest, Window Seat, Georgian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8127

This is a large antique four panel coffe. A Scottish, oak chest or window seat, dating to the Georgian period, circa 1750.

- Superb Scottish example from the George II period
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout
- Quality Scottish oak presents fine grain interest and wisps of medullary rays
- Graced with caramel and chestnut hues beneath the wax polish finish
- Stout lid opens upon internal strap hinges
- Wide, generous interior replete with candle box
- Fascinating lock escutcheon with amazing period lock and clasp mechanism— key absent
- Skilfully carved panels adorn the lid and front fascia
- Four bevelled shields accentuate the lid, ideal for use as a window seat
 - Distinctive front fascia carved with Saltire motif, the rear finished with bevelled lozenges
 - Raised prominently upon wide, block feet to each corner
