

Vintage Wing Back Arm Chair, English, Oak, Armchair, Gothic Revival, Circa 1950

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8261

This is a vintage wing-back arm chair. An English, oak lounge seat with Gothic revival taste, dating to the mid 20th century, circa 1950.

- Striking carvings accentuate this generously sized chair to a fine distinction
- Displays a desirable aged patina - some loss to upholstery throughout
- Fascinating oak stocks skilfully carved with aplomb

Ready to enjoy as is, but ripe for re-upholstery in keeping with the amazing show frame

- Prominent wings provide a shield from the warmth of the fireside
- Relaxing padded arms adorned with 'star anise' press studs
- Excitement to the heavily carved knuckles in the form of lion masques
- Oak leaf carvings decorate the knees, over wide paw feet - inset cup feet to rear

This is a fascinating and exuberant vintage wing-back arm chair, graced with appealing Gothic revival overtones. Ready to use as is, the chair would blossom if reupholstered to individual taste. Solid joints and construction. Delivered polished and ready to enjoy.
