

Antique Cheese Keeper, English, Jasper, Serving Dome, After Wedgwood, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8247

This is an antique decorative cheese keeper. An English, Jasperware serving dome in the manner of Wedgwood, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850.

- Alluring cheese keeper with attractive blue palette
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Distinctive Jasperware with white over blue ground
- Of generous size with provision for a truckle of Stilton of 2kg to 3kg in size (4.4 lb to 6.61 lb)
- Highly detailed acorn finial sits above the keeper lid
- Stylised foliate pattern to centre of lid with acorn leaf perimeter
- Cameo relief of putto adorns the circumference of the dome
- Rolled edge to base bears a repeat of the acorn branch relief

This is a delightful antique decorative cheese keeper, unmarked as such, but with the quality and skill expected of Wedgwood. Sure to grace any kitchen surface or dining table. Delivered ready to enjoy.

Search London Fine for #18.8247, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

- Max Width: 27cm (10.75")
- Max Depth: 27cm (10.75")
- Max Height: 20cm (7.75")
- Keeper Interior Width: 21cm (8.25")
- Keeper Interior Depth: 21cm (8.25")
- Keeper Interior Height: 10cm (4")

LIST PRICE

£1,295.00

