

Set Of Antique Metamorphic Library Steps, English, Oak, Folding Chair, Georgian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8251

This is a set of antique metamorphic library steps. An English, oak folding chair, dating to the late Georgian period, circa 1820.

- Fascinate guests with this attractive example of meubles à surprises - or surprise furniture
- Displays a desirable aged patina and in very good order
- Quality oak stocks show fine grain interest and an abundance of medullary rays
- Striking caramel hues beam beneath a quality wax polish finish
- A fine addition to the home library - elevate yourself to reach your favourite book
- Lifting the top step, the turned upper section rotates into place as a charming seat
- Once folded, the top step section rests securely against the lower step base
- Turned spindles present a distinctive back rest, with similar spindle front legs on a cylindrical foot

This is a captivating set of antique metamorphic library steps, rotating smoothly into a fascinating reading chair. Perfect for the home library or reading nook, this versatile piece will delight guests. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home

DIMENSIONS

- Chair Width: 45.5cm (18")
- Chair Depth: 36.5cm (14.25")
- Chair Height: 94.5cm (37.25")
- Steps Width: 45.5cm (18")
- Steps Depth: 54.5cm (21.5")
- Steps Height: 69.5cm (27.25")

