

Antique Ship's Wash Stand, English, Drop Flap Nightstand, Victorian, Circa 1850

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7926

This is an antique ship's wash stand. An English, mahogany drop flap nightstand, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850.

- Fascinating example of maritime furniture
- Displays a desirable aged patina with original marks commensurate with age and use
- Select stocks show fine russet hues and grain interest throughout
- Associated ceramic wash bowl and commemorative cup in good order
- Near square in proportion, extending flaps held stay with flying arm supports
- Lift-up top concertinas at the middle, folding into a low back rest
- Bowl and cup recess set neatly into the space beneath
- Dressed with a brass lock escutcheon - untested, key absent
- Arranged as a small cupboard with two drawers, each dressed with circular brass pulls

- The taller, narrow candle box sits above a shallower, full-width towel drawer
- Standing upon a quartet of gently tapered baluster legs with cylinder feet
