

Set Of 4 Antique Spoon Back Chairs, English, Dining Suite, Victorian, Circa 1840

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8213

This is a set of 4 antique spoon back chairs. An English, rosewood suite of dining seats, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1840.

- An exceptional set of superb quality and visual appeal
- Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout
- Select frame stocks show fine grain interest and deep russet hues
- Offering comfortable and supportive seating with traditionally webbed cushions
- Distinctive spoon back with medallion rest to centre
- Rolled top rail accentuated with feather motif
- Pierced form with a decorated lower rail, adorned with scroll detail
- Shield shape cushion presents a tasteful blush pink textile
- Trimmed with a complementary pink brocade trim
- Raised upon dashing cabriole legs with pinched toes
- Gently splayed rear legs terminate in circular feet

Search London Fine for #18.8213 , or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 56.5cm (22.25")
Max Depth: 51.5cm (20.25")
Max Height: 89.5cm (35.25")
Seat Width: 44.5cm (17.5")
Seat Depth: 39cm (15.25")
Seat Height: 43.5cm (17.25")

LIST PRICE

£1,725.00

