

Antique Hexagonal Spice Jar, Japanese, Glazed Earthenware, Pot, Meiji, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8292

This is an antique hexagonal spice jar. A Japanese, glazed earthenware lidded pot, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1880.

- Striking colour and charming decoration from the Meiji period
- Displays a desirable aged patina, some marks commensurate with age
- Distinctive hexagonal form a delight of bright green glaze
- Inset panels host foliate relief
- Tapering circular lid with concentric detail in natural finish

This is an appealing antique spice jar, a treat for collectors of the Meiji period of Japanese decorative ware. Delivered polished and ready to enjoy.
