

Vintage Decorative Baluchi Rug, Middle Eastern, Hall, Lounge Carpet, Circa 1930

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.7607

This is a vintage decorative Baluchi rug. A Middle Eastern, hand-woven hall or lounge carpet, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1930.

- Of useful size for the doorway or beneath the coffee table at 93cm x 155.5cm (36.5" x 61.25")
- Displays a desirable aged patina - delightfully sun faded with minimal wear
- Deep navy blue ground accentuated with warm ruby red detail
- The soft pile offering a comfortable feel underfoot
 - Six oblong panels with triangle and foliate detail, with smaller medallions to background
- Thick geometric border patterns with chased checkerboard pattern to each side
- Dressed with bands of short, loose tassels to either end

This is an attractive vintage Baluchi rug. Rich in colour and of pleasing underfoot comfort, the rug is of useful size for the entrance hall or lounge. Delivered ready to enjoy.

Search London Fine for #18.7607, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 93cm (36.5")

Max Depth: 0.5cm (.25")

Max Height: 155.5cm (61.25")

LIST PRICE

£1,125.00

