

Small Antique Correspondence Table, Scottish Oak, Writing Desk, Aesthetic Period

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8278

This is a small antique correspondence table. A Scottish, oak writing desk with skiver, dating to the Aesthetic period, circa 1880.

- Diminutive stature, ideal for the reception hall or nook
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Select Scottish oak shows fine grain interest and wisps of medullary rays
- Graced with superb colour, rich biscuit and caramel hues beam beneath the wax polish finish
- Wide top with rolled edge presents an inset writing skiver
- Crimson red leather embossed and accentuated with gold tooling
- Pair of useful drawers, dressed with brass drop handles over gothic quarterfoil backplates
- Both drawers with inset, brass lined locks — in working order, key present
- Drawer boxes in select mahogany with contrasting deep chestnut hues
- Stout block shoulders to each corner with rolled beading uniting across the front and rear apron
- Offers a knee-hole height of 55.5cm (21.75")
