

Antique Travelling Vanity Box, English, Campaign Correspondence Case, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8272

This is an antique travelling vanity box. An English, leather bound campaign correspondence case, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1880.

- Delightfully comprehensive travelling case, with pleasing period finish
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Leather bound case with blue interior finish
- Extends to reveal a suite of compartments and features
- Brass shield lock escutcheon to front – key absent
- Trio of opening lids dressed with small brass sliding clasps
- Original mercury glass mirror in heavily aged condition - no longer reflective - fits neatly beneath the top compartment
- Fold out handle for ease of carriage - engraved with registered mark
- Two quality glass bottles with silver plate lids in very good order

This is an appealing antique travelling vanity or correspondence box. Nicely aged, with a fascinating extending form. Delivered ready to enjoy.

Search London Fine for #18.8272, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Closed Width: 23.5cm (9.25")
 Closed Depth: 18cm (7")
 Closed Height: 12cm (4.75")
 Fully Extended Width: 64cm (25.25")
 Fully Extended Depth: 59cm (23.25")
 Fully Extended Height: 13.5cm (5.25")

LIST PRICE

£895.00

