

Small Antique Apprentice's Bureau, English, Writing Cabinet, Desk, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8308

This is a small antique apprentice's bureau. An English, mahogany and oak writing cabinet, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880.

- Charmingly petite bureau, well suited to the hall or alcove
- Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout
- Select mahogany stocks show fine grain interest and light russet hues
- Later oak stand offering a useful under tier
- Classic bureau form with a drop flap writing surface over three graduated drawers
- Dressed with working locks to each opening – key present
- Suite of four small drawers and document slides residing behind the fall front
- Working height of 82cm (32.25"), with an accommodating writing surface of 49.5cm x 41cm
- Fall supported by a pair of sliding lopers, dressed with small brass pulls
- Distinctive drop handles to each drawer, over bat wing backplates
- Shaped front and side aprons create a gallery with display surface
