

Antique Veranda Chair, Anglo Indian, Bentwood, Colonial Seat, Victorian, C.1870

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8374

This is an antique veranda chair. An Anglo-Indian, oak bentwood colonial seat, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1870.

- Graced with delightful forms and wonderful colour
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Distinctive oak bentwood frame presents fine grain interest
- Rich caramel hues compliment the lighter bergere beautifully
- Bowed top rail sits above a square section bergere cane back rest
- Serpentine arms roll gently to scrolled terminus, uniting with the raked rear leg
- Taut cane seat base in very good order, at a relaxed height of 39cm (15.25")
- Stands upon a striking X-frame, presenting a fascinating profile

This is a dashing antique veranda chair, with great colour and bergere in very good order. A fine addition to any porch or conservatory. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
