

Vintage Decorative Umbrella Stand, Continental, Hall Rack, Flower Vase, C.1960

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8356

This is a vintage decorative umbrella stand. A Continental, enamelled steel hall rack or dried flower vase, dating to the mid 20th century, circa 1960.

- Splendid mid-century forms and colour present a cheerful appeal
- Displays a desirable aged patina, small paint losses commensurate with age
- Rolled steel stand with wonderful space-race orb motif
- Bright red enamel paint pops against the white, black and red cylinders
- Three distinctive sleeves ideal for umbrellas, canes or dried flower arrangements
- Each cylindrical sleeve narrowing from 10cm in diameter to 3cm at the end (4" to 1.25")
- Charming custard yellow drip tray set within the base slides out for drying
- Stands upon a trio of slender legs with wonderful silver ball toes

This is a superb vintage decorative umbrella stand, graced with the expression, optimism and freedom so beloved of the mid 20th century. A treat for any hallway or flower arrangement. Delivered polished and ready to adore.

Search London Fine for #18.8356, or scan the QR code for more photos and details

DIMENSIONS

Max Width: 41.5cm (16.25")

Max Depth: 45cm (17.75")

Max Height: 65.5cm (25.75")

LIST PRICE

£1,195.00

