This is an antique drum table. An English, flame mahogany and marble circular centre table, dating to the Regency period, circa 1820.

- Beautifully presented centrepiece table with stout proportions
- Displaying a desirable aged patina throughout
- Some professional historic repairs to marble present
- Select flame stocks show superb grain interest and rich russet hues
- Deep, 2.5cm (1") thick platinum striata marble top a visual delight
- Appealing drum profile with deep apron, accentuated with beaded edge
- Prominent bulb support column with faceted panel finish
- Striking triform base with large scrolled knees, decorated with shell motif
- Standing upon a trio of bold, hairy paw feet

This is a delightful antique drum table, with an attractive marble top and excellent flame stocks. Ideal for centre room placement. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
