

Pair Of Antique Hall Stick Stands, English, Copper, Umbrella Bucket, Victorian

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8449

This is a pair of antique hall stick stands. An English, copper umbrella bucket, dating to the early Victorian period, circa 1850.

- Generous proportion and fascinating patination
- Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order
- Striking amber hues to the hand-formed copper bodies
- Painted interiors weathered to a charming finish commensurate with age
- Demi-lune hoop handles sit within domed mounts

This is an attractive pair of antique hall stick stands, with superb colour and well sized for the entrance hall. Delivered polished and ready to serve.
