

Vintage Blue Soda Siphon, French, Decorative Glass, Bistro Seltzer Bottle, 1932

DESCRIPTION

Our Stock # 18.8493

This is a vintage blue soda siphon. A French, decorative glass bistro seltzer bottle, dating to the early 20th century, circa 1930.

- Striking glass siphon, with a delightful Continental appeal
- Displays a desirable aged patina throughout
- Radiant blue glass in very good order, with subtle ribbed effect
 - Acid etched glass reads 'Grande Brasserie de Kerinou - Societe Anonyme - Lambezellec'
 - Cast metal siphon dispenser engraved with Grande Brasserie de Kerinou and Lambezellec
 - Further engraved 'G. Gonzales & Co, Cognac 1932'
 - The Grande Brasserie de Kerinou was a French brewery that later moved to Lambezellec, near Brest

This is a delightful vintage blue soda siphon, with grand appeal for Francophiles and collectors of decorative glass. Delivered polished and ready to display.
